Dear faculty, staff and parents of Marian Central Catholic High School,

Effective today, June 11, 2018, Mr. Steve Baldwin, Superintendent of Marian Central Catholic High School is no longer employed by the Diocese of Rockford. Mr. Baldwin has served the Marian community for one year.

Mr. Vito DeFrisco, assistant superintendent of Catholic Schools for the Diocese of Rockford has been named interim superintendent of Marian Central Catholic High School until the position can be filled.

Let us continue to pray for all those associated with Marian family, especially our students as they enjoy their summer break and prepare for a new academic year.

Sincerely,

Michael Kagan
Superintendent of Catholic Schools
Diocese of Rockford
